

Federal MP supports Rural Clinical Schools

On 2 December 2013, The Hon Dr Sharman Stone, Federal Member for Murray, introduced a motion in the House of Representatives in support of Rural Clinical Schools and rural/regional training.

Of particular note is Dr Stone's assertion that we are currently graduating enough doctors, and her call for more post graduate and vocational training places in rural and regional areas to address the mal distribution in the medical workforce.

To read Dr Stone's motion, click here.