

Medical Deans' Annual Conference

19 – 20 September 2019

The University of Melbourne
 Woodward Conference Centre
 Level 10, Melbourne Law (Building 106)
 185 Pelham St, Carlton

Day 1: Thursday 19 September 2019

Time	Topic	Speaker(s)
8:30-9:00	Registration
9:00-9:20	Welcome to Country Welcome to The University of Melbourne	Wurundjeri Elder Perry Wadin Professor John Prins Head Melbourne Medical School Professor Duncan Maskell Vice-Chancellor, The University of Melbourne
	President's Welcome	Professor Ian Symonds Dean of Medicine - Head of School, University of Adelaide President Medical Deans Australia and New Zealand
9:20-10:40	Session 1 – Transforming more than the intake Finding, teaching and supporting students who will flourish and be inspired and seek a future medical career meeting community needs; how do we train for a lifelong learning journey, as well as being well prepared for their internship; young doctors as a force for change, as part of their social contract. Presenters: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Professor Kirsty Forrest, Dean Bond Medical School: changing student selection - Ms Tricia Greenway, community representative: changing community expectations - Dr Joanna Flynn AM: how the profession is responding - A/Professor Joanne Baxter, Otago Medical School: Attracting, supporting and valuing diversity - Ms Jessica Yang, President AMSA: the students' perspective Facilitated panel/audience discussion	Chair: Professor Peter Crampton Otago Medical School Chair MDANZ Social Accountability Committee
10:40-11:00	Morning Tea

Day 1: Thursday 19 September 2019 continued

11:00-12:30	Session 2 – How can we ensure safe, supportive cultures and behaviours in teaching environments The issues our students face and experience; our responsibilities to ensure a safe environment – not only on our campuses but where our students undertake work-based learning. Presenters: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Ms Ellie Baxter, New Zealand Medical Student Association: the student experience - Professor Imogen Mitchell, Dean ANU Medical School: findings of ANU survey - Ms Bernadette McDonald, CEO Canberra Hospital: how Canberra Hospital is addressing the issue - Dr Gerald Hickson, Vanderbilt University Medical Centre: Strategies to change unacceptable behaviour by doctors – via videoconference Facilitated panel/audience discussion	Chair: Professor Brian Kelly Head of School, Joint Medical Program, University of Newcastle and University of New England Chair MDANZ Student Health Committee
12:30-1:30	Lunch (Lunchtime meeting for UCAT Members – side room off the conference room)
1:30-2:30	Allan Carmichael Memorial Lecture	Dr Joanna Flynn AM
2:30-4:00	Session 3 – Teaching Indigenous health and culturally safe practice Are we delivering what the community, our students and our educators need? Presenters: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Ms Donnella Mills, Acting Chair NACCHO: The communities’ perspective - Professor Geoff McColl, Chair AMC Medical Schools Accreditation Committee: the Medical Council’s perspective - Dr Curtis Walker, Chair Medical Council of New Zealand: the regulator’s perspective - Professor Shaun Ewen, LIME Network: Insights from Indigenous medical educators Facilitated panel/audience discussion	Chair: Professor Sandra Eades Associate Dean (Indigenous), Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry and Health Sciences, University of Melbourne
4:00-5:00	Medical Deans’ Meeting – Members only

Conference Dinner at SEA LIFE Melbourne Aquarium 6:30 – 10pm Thursday 19 September

Buses will depart the Larwill Studio Hotel, Flemington Rd, at 18:00 and depart the restaurant at 22:00, returning back to the Larwill Hotel.

Welcome: Professor Shitij Kapur
Dean, Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry and Health Sciences
Assistant Vice-Chancellor (Health)
The University of Melbourne

Dinner speaker: Professor Paul Torzillo AM
Head, Respiratory Medicine Royal Prince Alfred Hospital
Clinical Professor Medicine at University of Sydney
Director Health Habitat

Day 2: Friday 20 September 2019

Time	Topic	Speaker(s)
8:30-8:40	Welcome Recap of Day 1 and outline sessions for Day 2	Professor Ian Symonds Dean of Medicine - Head of School, University of Adelaide President Medical Deans Australia and New Zealand
8:40-10:10	Session 4 – The challenges facing medical education What are the major challenges we're facing? In what areas are we delivering for our students, our patients and our communities, and where aren't we? What might disrupt our model, and how might this impact us and our students? What does innovative disruption look like for medical schools, and what are the outcomes we are seeking? Presenters - Professor Lambert Schuwirth , Strategic Professor in Medical Education, Flinders University College of Medicine and Public Health - Dr Bec Szabo , Obstetrician/Gynaecologist & Medical Educator at the University of Melbourne - Dr Joe Kolars , Senior Associate Dean, Education and Global Initiatives, University of Michigan Medical School (via videoconference) Facilitated panel/audience discussion	Chair: Professor Kirsty Forrest Dean of Medicine, Faculty of Health Sciences & Medicine, Bond University Chair MDANZ Medical Education Collaborative Committee
10:10-10:20	Morning Tea
10:20-11:00	Session 5 – Associate members The outcomes of the review of Fiji's medical program A profile of Papua New Guinea medical students	Professor William May Dean, Fiji National University College of Medicine Nursing & Health Sciences Professor Nakapi Tefuarani Dean, University of Papua New Guinea School of Medicine and Health Sciences

Day 2: Friday 20 September 2019 continued

11:00-12:00	Session 6 – Research environment and its implications for the curricula: What are the main issues and opportunities in the research environment at the moment, and how are medical schools responding? What are the outcomes we are seeking from our research teaching, and are we achieving them? Are there any other implications from our research curriculum? How can we improve the path to a clinician-researcher career? Presenters <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Professor Doug Hilton AO, Director Walter and Eliza Hall Inst.: Strengthening the relationships between Medical Schools and MRIs - A/Professor Di Eley, Director of MD Research & Research Training, University of Queensland: Research in the Curriculum - Professor Stuart Carney, Deputy Executive Dean Faculty of Medicine, University of Queensland: Strengthening Clinical Academic Pathways Facilitated panel/audience discussion	Chair: Professor Annemarie Hennessy Dean, School of Medicine Western Sydney University Chair MDANZ Research Committee
12:00-12:50	Session 7 – The importance of data <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Release of 2019 MSOD Report and its key findings - Overview of our data linkage work Workshop at tables <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What data do we need? What questions are we being asked now? What might we need in the foreseeable future? - What value can MSOD offer to our medical schools' research work? Are we asking the right questions? - How can we more effectively streamline our surveys, and/or connect with other surveys our students are asked to complete? 	Chairs: Professor Ian Symonds Dean of Medicine - Head of School, University of Adelaide President Medical Deans Australia and New Zealand Professor Richard Murray Dean of the College of Medicine and Dentistry, James Cook University Chair MDANZ Data Committee
12:50-1:00	Wrap-up and close	Professor Ian Symonds Dean of Medicine - Head of School, University of Adelaide President Medical Deans Australia and New Zealand
1pm	Lunch	